Terms and Conditions for Earning of Award Miles

- The award miles earned will automatically be transferred to the Cardholder's Miles & More membership account which is registered with Axis Bank, every billing cycle and will also reflect in the customer's monthly credit card statement.
- Miles will only be earned on Eligible spends transactions. Eligible spends transactions are defined as spends excluding reversals, fraud transactions, fee payments, cash withdrawals, interest charges, transactions converted to EMI and transactions classified under Merchant Category Code (MCC) as Fuel.
- AXIS Bank will calculate the award miles to be credited to the cardholders, on the basis of their spend through the Miles & More Credit Card. Once the award miles have been credited by Miles & More to the Miles & More account registered with Axis Bank, the cardholders' rights and duties shall be governed exclusively by the conditions for participation in the Miles & More programme.
